

After the Bell

21st Century Community Learning Center

After the Bell Assistant

The primary role of the After the Bell assistant is to support the program teacher with students including homework assistance within a 21st Century Community Learning Center program. The focus of the 21st CCLC program is to provide students with academic enrichment opportunities along with other activities that are designed to complement school day learning. Students participate in project-based learning, service learning, character education, recreation, and technology learning. Students are provided with homework assistance. Activities and projects are expected to enhance English Language Arts (ELA) which is the academic outcome area being addressed in the program. Through these opportunities After the Bell's goal is to increase student engagement while supporting a well-rounded education and social emotional learning.

Flexible days and hours, Monday-Thursday 2:00 p.m.-5:30 p.m.

Primary Responsibilities

- Be actively engaged in working with students during homework and activity time.
- Assist students with homework.
- Actively participate in snack and outside time to ensure student engagement and safety.
- Provide consistent supervision during After the Bell to ensure the safety of all students.

Compensation

- $15.00 -$17.00 per hour
